Particulars of the St. Nicholas Disaster. FULL LIST OF THE LOST, INJURED AND SAVED.

Correspondence of the Republican. CAIRO, April 25th, 1859. Being an eve-witness,; it becomes my duty to relate the particulars of the explosion and burning of the steamer St. Nicholas, which occurred on the 24th inst., 10 o'clock, P. M., at the foot of St. Francis Island, about 75 miles below Memphis. Immediately after the explosion she took THOS. MARSTON, JR. fire and burned to the water's edge. Fortunately we were in sight of her with the Susquehanna, on our way up, at the time of the accident, not more than two miles distant. Capt O. C. Williamson immediately ordered the men to the yawl to the relief of the sufferers, who were seen floating in the river and clinging to the ropes and rudder WOODEN AND WILLOW-WARE; of the wreck. There were several skiffs and the yawl of the St. Nicholas picking up ork and Flour Plugs, Rungs, &c., &c. the people. Those saved were brought aboard of our boat. We were compelled to remain some distance from the wreck, owing to the fact of the wind blowing in our direction. Ladies were seen clinging to the burning wreck; men, cattle and hogs swimming in every direction. Capt. McMullen was in the pilot house at the time of the accident. A piece of the deck fell on one of his feet. Several who lows; Fancy Baskels and Willow-Ware; French, saw him tried to extricate him, but in vain.
